Julieta Hsiung (CHN, 1997)

Lives and Works in Madrid/Shanghai.

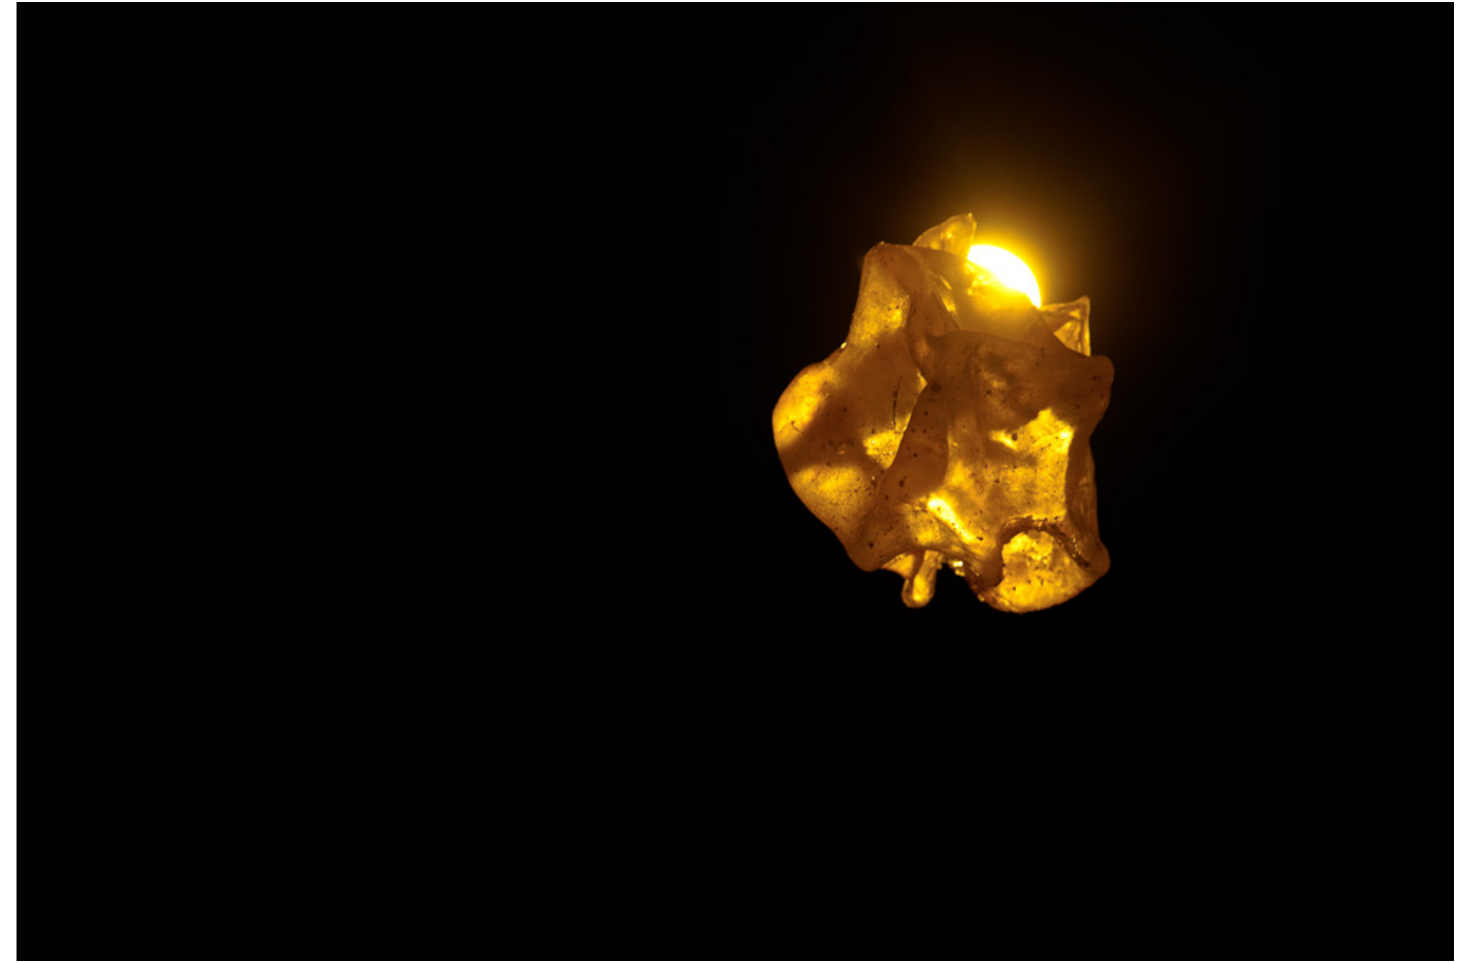

Julieta holds a dual degree in Fine Arts from TAI University School of the Arts in Madrid, Spain, and in Accounting and Finance from Nanjing University of Finance and Economics in China, reflecting her diverse academic background. Her creative journey is intricately woven from this unique blend of disciplines. Through her art, she embarks on a dynamic odyssey, fueled by a dedication to seamlessly integrate history into contemporary existence, forging connections across different worlds and epochs.

Drawing inspiration from philosophy, literature, and nature, Julieta's multidisciplinary approach spans painting, video art, photography, and more. Her exploration of materiality goes beyond physical properties, delving into hidden narratives and cultural significances. With a delicate balance between form and content, Julieta's art serves as a medium for expression, inviting viewers to uncover intricate layers, sparking imagination, and fostering personal connections within each piece.

Her artworks were showcased at the Círculo de Bellas Artes in Madrid. Additionally, as a member of the Sinfín Compañer_os collective, she presented Sinfín Lingual performance art pieces at the 15th Documenta Festival in Kassel in 2022.
